ESKEW BROS, Machinists, INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS. REPRESENT

Are You Advancing?

DROGRESS means to make improvement---to advance. For a farmer it means the use of any machine that will increase crops with the least work. When you progress you are striving for easier methods of doing things, better ways of living, and the attainment of all improvements which will help you to live comfortably so that you can enjoy your work, and at the same time relish the free, fresh air and sunshine. Are you doing it? Do you progress?

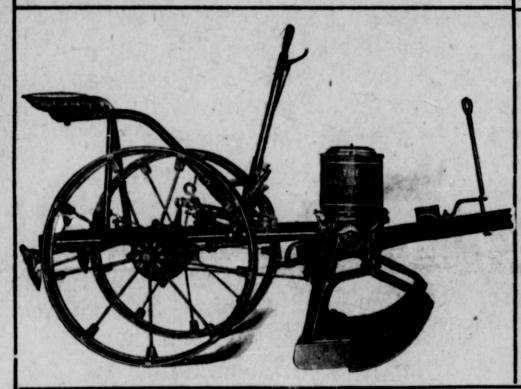

"The Admiral is just a little bit the best Mower that ever went into the field. Farmers come in every day telling what a wonderful machine it is. We would not buy anything else."

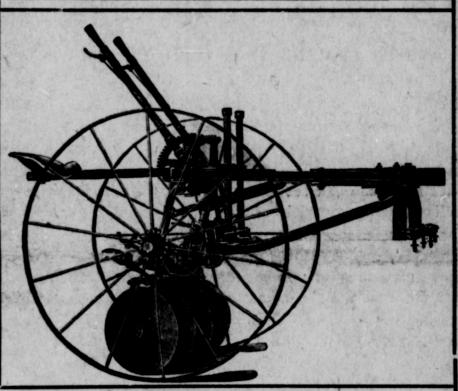

No one who wants to keep posted on the newest in farm machinery will neglect to investigate the Admiral. It will surprise and delight you.

Do You Believe In Progress?

MEN who progress are men who use McCormick or Walter A. Wood's up-to-date binders, hay-rakes, mowers hay-tedders, reapers, harrows, cultivators, planters and etc. Are you up to date? Are you using modern farm machines? Look at your equipment Are'nt some of your machines pretty well worn? Shouldn't you replace them? There is no line of farm machines superior to our line. These machines are used in every civilized country in the world.

McCormick and Walter A. Wood machines are recommended by men who use them, they could have no better recommendation than this. It is to your interest to use this line as they are best and give the least trouble in repairs, as we carry a full line at our shop. Get our prices and see our machines before you buy We take pleasure in showing them.

ADE IN ROAD BUILDING. Full List Of All Subscriptions

All advances in civilazation are brought about by either moral or physical reforms. The building of good roads is a physical reform. It is said that "Cleanliness is next to Godliness" and a companion couplet reads "Good roads begets good morals". These couplets are not found in the Bible but engineering he "Thanked God they certainly breathe the spirit and took courage". We underof sacred inspiration.

The building and maintenance of good roads in any community, County or State is conclusive evidence of a well balanced public mind, a reasonable desire for comfort, and a keen appreciation of their value in dollars and cts. The earliest systematic effort at road making is accredited to the Carthagenians and was begun for the purposes of war and the conquest of distant countries. 55 years before Christ, Julius Caesar built a road from London to New Castle-on-Tyne and this road is one of their most celebrated road the county. ing founded on through drainage. and cast aside when the novelty is the best of all teaching.

Oh! it's then I go back to the turn in the lane, And live over the joys of my childhood again.

I can see the old house, as it stood on the hill, The creek through the meadow, the

But time has changed the old country place, Like the change that has come to my once youthful face.

The hillside is furrowed and wearing And the walls of the house have begun to decay. I pause to reflect as this story is told. That visions of youth are still ours when we're old.

I believe I am well within the bounds of reason Paynter could not have polled, when he was elected to the Senate more am no mind reader, but I know your preference as the people of Kentucky know what it is. There was a time when it was necessary for you to act. When Democratic platforms were being trampled upon and Democratic issues were imperfilled you remained silent.

I was told quite frequently at Louisville, when the committee met the time before the last, that the primary call was not in proper form and that it must be absolutely legally drawn because Senator Paynter intended to institute a suit in the courts enjoining the holding of the senatorial primary; that it would not be done by him openly, but by some other person who really would be acting in his interest and that it would be said, of course, that Senator Paynter knew nothing about it; that a primary was entirely satisfactory to him.

Joe Gets Some Advise.

A week rolled away, and Miss Inogene Moss-She was free, of course, from her bald-headed boss-Had been busy assisting in household affairs, Making pies, sweeping floors and the dusting of chasrs.

Joseph, too, had been busy-still lifting up hods-He had almost forgotten he'd ever hopp'd clods-So still up went the bricks to the man at the top, With never a shirk and with scarcely a stop.

One ev'ning, however, when Joe had quit work-For the man at the top had cried, "Time is up Turk!" And had started for home, as was always his plan,

'Let me speak to you. Turk, just a moment," he said; I have heard that you've made up your mind soon to wed, Now, of course I can't blame you, 'tis better, I own, As the Bible has said, than to live all alone.

'You've a good paying job, that of lifting up hods-I'm agreeing with you, it beats hopping the clods-And I'd like well to see you thus settled in life In a nice, happy home with a sweet loving wife.

Never Had a Senator. The First congressional district of Ken-nucky is the Gibraltar Democratic district of our state. It furnishes 10,000 to 15,000 majority on election day; it is the bul-mark to which Democracy looks is the

me of battle, and yet this great dis-rict has never been honored in all the distory of the Democratic party for more han a hundred years with the selection than a hundred years with the selection of one of her sons as the nominee of the Democratic party. The district in which Senator Paynter now lives has furnished a United States senator from Kentucky for three-fourths of the time since Kentucky was admitted into the Union. And I submit to a fair democracy that it is only just that the Gibraltar democratic district of the state should for one time in more than a century be given the nomination as the standard-bearer of the Democratic party for the United States senatorship. We have given you our votes in all the struggles for all these years without complaint. We submit to the fairmindedness of the people of the whole state that this request is more than reasonable. It is true I am a member of the great committee upon Ways and Means, the first Democrat to hold than reasonable. It is true I am a member of the great committee upon Ways and Means, the first Democrat to hold the place from Kentucky since the days of Carliele, of Beck, of Breckenridge and of Montgomery, fought my way to the front bearing the stainless banner of the people's rights. If I have endeared myself to my colleagues, it was because I was a Democrat and a lover of the rights of men. a believer in justice to all humanity, and that I bore no whitewash brushes nor flag of truce to the Republican party.

Appreciates Paynter's Compliment. While I appreciate greatly the high compliment my unwilling opponent pays me in saying that I ought to be kept in the house, that the people can not spare me from that forum. I can not say for him that he ought to be kept in the senate. The senate to-day is the one rock against which the sigh of the people for relief breaks. It is the last stand of plutocracy; it is the rendezvous of the vested interests; it is the lair of corporate greed. The people of Kentucky need one who will fight for them, one who is their friend and unafraid.

The Democrats of the Senate Repudi-

The Democrats of the Senate Repudi ate Paynter.

Senator Paynter asks the Democrats of Kentucky to approve his record, and yet with a shirking that is almost shameless he fails to call attention to those parts of his political record which have brought him into the white light of public attention. He asks the people of Kentucky to approve his record, and yet when the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill was under consideration with its 4500 schedules which sideration with its 4,500 schedules which oppress humanity, with the unlimited

the senate, with the vested inter ests writing these outrageous schedules of taxation into this law, the Senator into this law, the Senator things most needed in the homes of our people. The farmer was being taxed, the laborer was being taxed, the merchant, laborer was being taxed, the merchant, the mechanic, the business man, and yet the Senator with weeks and months of time at his disposal during this discussion never rose to point out to the senate and to the country these wrongs that were being attempted upon the American people upon the things most needed by them. But not so when Lorimer, the "blond boss" from Chicago, the Republican millionaire, the man who voted for the force bill to reduce southern representation, to place back upon ern representation, to place back upon the white people of the South the black rule of negro domination, and who voted to unseat Democrats, who were elected by the voice of the people from southern states. Yet when Lorimer, who was elected by corrupt methods, the like of which has never disgraced any other assembly with the possible execution. elected by corrupt methods, the like of which has never disgraced any other assembly, with the possible exception of Guggenheim, who bought his seat in Colorado—this man Lorimer, who said in his speech upon the floor of the senate that he voted as Aldrich did; Aldrich was his leader and when the bells rang for the vote he went into the senate and did not ask. "Is it right?" or "Is it wrong?" "Does the bill tax humanity, or does it relieve their burdens?" But he only asked the brutal question, "How did Aldrich vote? I vote as he votes." When this man's title to a seat was under discussion in the senate upon a report which Senator Paynter helped to make, the Kentucky Senator found time to speak for hours in the defense of this man, who was elected by these corrupt methods, who stands for everything that oppresses mankind, who is the agent of the system. The Senator for hours, in the name of Kentucky and representing her proud people, spoke in defense of Lorimer. And yet, fellow citizens, this same Senator Lorimer, who was elected by this servention, a corruption so glaring and name of Kentucky and representing her proud people, spoke in defense of Lorimer. And yet, fellow citizens, this same Senator Lorimer, who was elected by this corruption, a corruption so glaring and outrageous that four men, conscience stricken, who took bribes went forward and confessed, implicating three other members of the legislature who, they said, corrupted them, making seven in all. But Senator Paynter says you should deduct the seven from the total number of votes, and if Lorimer had a majority of those remaining then he was entitled to his seat. No wonder the Republican Senate created a place for the senator upon the committee of the Judiciary; it is a wonder they do not elevate him to the supreme court of the United States; for the holding that he made, in my judgment, would not find respectable approval anywhere. The idea of saying that a man may become a candidate for office and may go forth and bribe the number down to where he has a majority of those unbribed and get the office is the announcement of a doctrine that would undermine the Republic and make the senate, more than it is now, the bulwark of plutocracy, bribery and corruption. Say there are a hundred members in the legislature, and say that I have 28 honest men who are for me and my opponent has 74 who are for him; all I have to do, according to the doctrine of the distinguished Senator, the doctrine he involked to hold Lorimer in his seat, is to go and bribe 49 of the men who are for him, and then you subtract 49 from the total number of 74, and 25 being a majority of his remaining 25, I will be entitled to the seat. One-half of the people would have been disfranchised and bribery, brutal, corrupt and impudent would have triumphed and the member Lorimer. A man might bette accepted by ambition, but be who britse for another's benefit, usually gase some return. And yet the most dangerous force that threatens the American people today is bribary of that very sort. Of source, I do not believe that this bribary occurred without Lorimer's knowledge or consent, and I hesitate to think that Senator Paynter believes it; because I am constrained to think that if no beneved it, he would have called for Lorimer to take the stand and lift his hand and be sworn and say whether or use he had any knowledge of this bribery.

knowledge of this bribery.

Lorimer Not Sworn as a Witness.

But notwishetanding the fact that Lorimer was there at Soringfield, during the time this bribery ecourred, notwithstanding he was rooming and in constant communication with the men who were accused of having committed the bribery, he was not called. Tet when the honor of the senate, the honor of the United States was at stake, when the very honor of Senator Paymer himself was at stake, when the honor of Lorimer was at issue, Senator Paymer never once asked the secused Senator from Illinois, William Lorimer, to take the stand and lift his hand to be swern to tell the truth, the whole truth relative to his connection with this affair. Why was he not placed on the witness stand? Senator Paymer states that he resigned from the Ballinger committee because he was sick and had not an opportunity to cross-examine Mr. Ballinger. Senator Paymer was sick for two days, the Ballinger investigating committee was in session for five months. Ballinger was upon the stand for eight days; he could have been recalled at any time, as Senator Paymer well knew, for the purpose of asking him any question he desired. And yet the Senator resigned from the committee because he could not cross-examine him. The Ballinger case did not affect the honor of the senate, it affected the property of the people. It did not affect the honor of Senator Paymer as a member of the senate, it affected the property of the people. It did not affect the honor of Senator Paymer as a member of the senate, it affected the great natural resources of the people. It did not affect the honor of Senator Paymer as a member of the senate, it affected the great natural resources of the people. It did not affect the honor of Senator Paymer as a member of the senate, it affected the great natural resources of the people. It did not affect the honor of Senator Paymer as a member of the senate, it affected the great natural resources of the people after resigning from the committee because he did not have an op Lorimer Not Sworn as a Witness

Why did not Lorimer take the stand? Was it because when he sworn he would be subject to prosecution for perjury or false swearing, if he swore falsely? Was it because Lorimer did not know how it because Lorimer did not know how many more conscience stricken men would come forward and implicate him as these four or seven men had done, fear-ing the criminal courts of the land. He sought to be excused from testifying as to the integrity of his own election, the purity of his own action, the honor of his own state. Democrats of the Senate Repudiate Paynter's Report. Senator Paynter asks the people of Kentucky to endorse his action here, as a member of the Senate. A strange request this is when the Senator himself commissioned by his colleagues in the senate claimed to them to have heard all the testimony and to have rendered a just and righteous verdict. These mending deep into the facts, they delved far into the record, they read it all, they heard it all and they read it all, they heard it all and they would not do what Senator Paynter asks the people of Kentucky to do; that is, endorse his record. But instead, his Democratic colleagues. in spite of the comradeship and amity that exists between members of that body, in spite of the appeals made, by two to one his own Democratic fellows in the senate disapproved his record and said that Lorimer ought to be driven from the senate.

Let us call the roll and see who stood by Senator Paynter for Lorimer. (Mr. James then read and commented upon the roll call of the senate.) I was in that chamber when the vote was taken and eaw it all. I saw Senator Paynter sitting in the seat oocupied by Beck, by Clay, men who lived and died poor, men who had no tolerance of filmsy technicalities of the law when they were used as barriers to protect corruption. I saw Senator Paynter leading his fight; beside him were Depew and Guggenheim.

Paymer's Vote on Iron Orc. He voted on May 13, 1909, for a tax of ten per cent ad valorem upon iron ore. The protection Republicans in the house, headed by Sereno E. Payne and John Dalzell, believing as they did that they had a right to enrich men by law at the expense of all the rest, did not have the effrontery to place a tax upon this article. And in the bill passed by the House framed by these gentlemen iron ore was framed by these gentlemen iron ore was made free; but when it got to the sen-ate, this material, which goes into the made free; but when it got to the senate, this material, which goes into the manufacture of every wagon, harrow, plow, stove, farming implement, kitchen utensile is taxed 10 per cent ad valorem, and Senator Paynter cast his vote for this increaced duty, a protective duty pure and simple, a duty which added 10 per cent to the wealth of the Steel trust which owns practically all the iron ore in the United States, and made impossible free iron ore from Cuba, Canada and other countries, for the use of independent manufacturers of steel and iron who might compete with the Steel Trust, and increased the price of every article to the extent of 10 per cent which the consumers, farmers, mechanics and householders have to pay. This vote is indefensible and inexcusable in my judgment, and if I had been in the senate I would have voted to have it placed free, because I would have represented the people who consume the articles made from iron ore and would not have voted for the trust which manufactures iron and steel, and owns the iron ore beds in this country.

His Pair With Guggenheim.

His Pair With Guggenheim. His Pair With Guggenheim.

Senator Paynter, according to the Congressional Record, had a general pair with Senator Simon Guggenheim, of Colorado. But I find from the record of the votes upon the tariff bill that Guggenheim voted when he pleased and Senator Paynter when absent was without a pair if Guggenheim pleased to vote, but the Record shows no complaint upon Paynter's part—when he allowed the near three millions of Kentuckians to go unrepresented, even by a pair vote.

His Vote on Lead Ore.

On May 7, 1909, an amendment was offered by Aldrich by which the duty upon lead and lead bearing ore of all kinds was placed at 1½ cents per pound, which is equal to $30 per ton. Guggenheim, Senator Paymer's pair, voted and Senator Paymer was recorded as not voting, and he was without a pair. Did Senator Paymer authorize Guggenheim to vote upon questions like lead ore and zinc ore, and other things out of which his (Guggenheim's) fortune is made and upon which he wanted to levy a tax upon the American people? If not, why did Senator Paynter not repudiate in the open senate Guggenheim who was paired with him and in violation of the pair voted with him, and did violate the pair, or did Paynter allow the confiding people of His Vote on Lead Ore. Paynter allow the confiding people of Kentucky to go unrepresented—even by against the amendment. The amendment, of course, would have affected the profits that have made Mr. Guggenheim a millionaire, and he is not to be blamed (if the personal interest of a public official is allowed to control above his oath and his public duty) for voting to enrich himself at the expense of the consuming public. But the inquiry I desire to make is where was Senator Paynter and why did he not vote for this amendment? With whom was he paired? There is none announced for him.

Paynter's Vote on Cash Registers. cent to 15 per cent upon cash registers.

Senator Paynter again was absent and not voting, and Mr. Guggenheim rose is his place and used the following language: "I have a pair with the senior senator from Kentucky, Mr. Paypter. I transfer that pair to the senator from Delaware, Mr. Dupont, and vote. I vote no." So, it would appear from this that when Guggenheim desired he paid utterly no attention to the pair and he transferred it to some absent millionaire like Dupont and then cast his own vote. In congressional and senatorial parlance. Guggenheim transferred Senator Paynter to a dead pair, but I have examined the Congressional Record and find no complaint made by Senator Paynter of being transferred about by Guggenheim to Dupont as the exigencies of the occasion might require.

Free Lumber.

Free Lumber.

On June 28, 1909, when the question came up on free lumber, Senator Paynter was absent and not voting and Guggenwas absent and not voting and Guggenheim on this vote announced a pair, but did not transfer it and nowhere stated
how he would have voted if Senator Paynter had been present. It might have been that Guggenheim would have voted for free lumber, at least I know of no state that needs free lumber worse than Colorado. Mr. Gugenheim may tell his people that he would have voted for free lumber, at least he did not have the courage to say he would have voted against it, and that Senator Paynter would have voted against free lumber.
The Record does not "sclose. Free lumber was a platform promise made by the Democratic party in national convention at Denver in 1908. Senator Paynter was a delegate there and did not oppose it—he was in honor bound to support ft
—yet he did not vote.

Paynter's Vote on Wire Nails, Barbed beim on this vote announced a pair, but Paynter's Vote on Wire Nails, Barbed Wire, Etc.

On June 28, 1909, an amendment wee offered reducing the traiff upon iron in pigs, upon round iron and steel wire, upon barbed wire and wire nails made of upon barbod wire and wire nails made of iron or steel; and again Senator Paynter was absent and his regular pair. Mr. Guggenheim, voted. Of course, Guggenheim was interested in taxing the people of Kentucky upon all those things that are used by all our citizens and which go to make his pockets bulge. He announced no pair with Senator Paynter and I find no complaint upon the part of Setnator Paynter about his failure to do so, therefore Kentucky was disfranchased upon this important vote so, therefore Kentucky was chased upon this important vote.

Paynter's Vote on School Books. Paynter's Vote on School The blind senator, Gore, of Oklahoma, offered an amendment placing school books to be used in the public schools of municipality of offered an any state, territory or municipality of the United States, upon the free list. This would have aided the seventeen mil-lion families in the United States in se-curing cheaper school books for their children. Senator Paynter was again absent and not voting and unpaired, but Gug-genheim, his theretofore regular pair, voted no against this amendment. Ken-tucky again had no voice to speak for her.

Paynter's Vote on Salt.

Senator Bacon offered an amendment placing salt on the free list and argued with eloquence and power that it is one of the necessities of life that should be of the necessities of life that should be untaxed, that it was Democratic doctrine of a hundred years' standing that this great necessity and preservative should be made free to the people from tariff burdens. Senator Paynter again was absent and not voting and unpaired, but Guggenhelm cast his vote no, and thus voted to keep the tax even upon salt that goes into the people's bread. So, again. Paynter was absent and the cattle upon Kentucky's thousand hills were 'lowing out "Where was Paynter?"

Paynter's Vote on Cotton Ties. Senator Culberson, of Texas, offered an Senator Paynter leading his fight; beside him were Depew and Guggenheim, of Colorado, and the stand pat crowd.

Official Records.

The people are interested in the official record of their public servants, and such a record is a legitimate subject of discussion, analysis and inspection, and exercising this right, I desire to call to the attention of the people of Kentucky the record of Senator Thomas H. Paynter. I believe this record discloses that he does not represent the democracy of the state that he is retrogressive, not progressive, that he is tainted with protectionism.

Paynter's Vote on Iron Ore

Paynter on the Income Tax Question. When the question came up of the in-When the question came up of the income tax amendment, on July 5, 1909, an amendment was offered that this income tax question should be submitted to conventions called in the states for that purpose, and not to the state legislatures. This would have given the people an opportunity to send men to the convention upon the direct question of the income tax. All friends of the income tax were in favor of this amendment. Senator Paynter was again absent, but tax were in favor of this amendment. Senator Paynter was again absent, but his regular pair, Guggenheim, transferred him upon this vote to Senator Piles, of Washington, who was absent somewhere, and Guggenheim voted no upon this question. Again Senator Paynter was transferred by his colleague. Guggenheim, to a dead pair, but doubtless he had gotten used to it by this time and no complaint was ever made.

Paynter's Voting Percentage.

I find that out of a total number of votes upon the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill of 122 roll calls, Senator Paynter voted 75 times and was absent 47 times. His record of not voting was 38.5 per cent, in other words, Kentucky was not represented or misrepresented at least more than a third of the time.

Senator Blackburn Defeated.

How strange the argument comes from Senator Paynter that because he is upon the Judiciary Committee he ought to be kept in the Senate. When Senator Blackburn was leader of the minority in the Senate, the highest position to which a Democrat could hope to attain, upon a legislative committee of the greatest importance, a position which after a lifetime of service upon Senator Paynter's part he could not hope to achieve, and yet when Senator Paynter's part he could not hope to achieve, and yet when Senator Paynter had five years as judge upon the Court of Appeals at $5,000 a year unserved, a place to which he had been elected by the people after having told them that he wanted them to endorse him and send him back to the bench, he gave up these five years unserved as Appellate Judge, at a salary equal at that time to that of a United States Senator, to run against Senator Blackburn, who was seeking to round out a lifetime of usefulness as a public servant, high in party councils, at the pinnacle, high in committee assignments, at the very top, a standing with his colleagues of the very best, and yet Senator Paynter became a candidate against Senator Blackburn and defeated him. And I believe, fellow citizens, that you will agree with me that it comes with poor grace and with no excuse for Senator Paynter now to say that he ought to be kept in the Senate because he happens to be on the Judiciary Committee, which is not a committee of any importance so far as legislation in the interest of the Senator Blackburn Defeated. not a committee of any importance so far as legislation in the interest of the people is concerned. It handles neither the tariff nor railroad bills nor appropriation bills, or practically any other legislation of direct importance to the neople. I was importanced by handlesde Kentucky to go unrepresented—even by a pair?

His Vote Upon Scrap and Pig Iron.
On June 25, 1969, an amendment was offered striking out the tariff duty of $2.50 a ton on wrought and east scrap iron and scrap steel, which, as stated by Senator Burkett in the debate, is the same as pig iron and an identical term. Senator Paynter again was recorded as not voting, and his regular pair, Senator Guggenheim. Was recorded as voting Guggenheim. Was recorded as voting

My Record.

My record as a member of Congress is familiar to the people of Kentucky. I am proud of it, proud of it because it is Democratic, because it is upon the people's side, because it keeps sacred Democratic platform promises. And what a contrast Kentucky presented in the two great investigations that were conducted in the last year; one, the investigation of the Lorimer case, in which Senator Paynter appeared as the chief defender of this gentlemen, the other the case of Richard A. Ballinger, a member of the President's cabinet. I was on this committee and did not resign from it as Senator Paynter did. I stayed at my post and worked for months. I knew that millions and billions of dollars of the people's property was at stake; I knew that Alaska, the great storehouse left to the American people, had at its very throat the Guegenheim-Morgan syndicate; I worked there with my colleagues, and what was the result? We drove out of the President's cabinet an unfaithful public servant. The Republicans would not have selected me on the committee. I was elected by my Democratic colleagues in caucus, securing more votes than any other one and was placed in nomination by Champ Democratic colleagues in caucus, secur-ing more votes than any other one and was placed in nomination by Champ Clark. The Republicans would have sewas placed in nomination by Champ Clark. The Republicans would have selected men who love whitewash rather than light. My record on that committee is one in which I take pride. It takes courage to stand out and fight for the people's rights, unearth wrong, uncover greed, and strip from corruption its mask. To do this it requires a genuine Democrat, one who would rather represent the people than to sit in the benign sunshine of the smiles of the powers that be.

The Amendment Senator Paynter Offered.

Senator Paynter tells us in his card of announcement that he introduced in the Senate an amendment, which never passed, in which he sought to nave the government to furnish official information as to the amount of agricultural products in the hands of the manufacturers, with a view of embling the farmers to know what would be the necessary demand of the manufacturers for the crops in the hands of the producers. Yet the Senator neglected to may, and being quite generous myself I will presume he forgot it, that the amendment he offered had been previously drafted by Hon. Campbell Cantrill and passed in the Democraic caucus in the House, where I aided Mr. Cantrill myself in securing its adoption. I merely give this information in the interest of historical accuracy. The Senator also tells us that he introduced an amendment to the railroad rate bill, and he would leave the casual reader under the impression doubtless that it became a law, but in the interest of like accuracy I must inform the public that it did not become a law and is not now the law. I do not know who was the author of this.

He gtells us that he supported an amendment taking the tax off of tobacco.

the law. I do not know who was the author of this.

He tells us that he supported an amendment taking the tax off of tobacco. This is true. It was the same amendment for which I had been fighting for years. It was not included in the Payne tariff bill when reported to the House, and I was the first man to call attention to it upon the floor of the House for that reason. We succeeded in having it included in the Payne bill in the House, and when it went to the Senate Senator Paynter spoke for it, and the longer he spoke the more certain its defeat became apparent, and it was finally so amended as to allow the farmer to sell his tobacco in the leaf in lots of two-pound packages, which was not the amendment passed in the House nor one calculated to give much relief to the people. I can say to the tobacco growers of Kentucky that if I am elected to the Senate, the amendment as passed by the House, giving the farmer an unlimited right to sell his tobacco, and those to whom be sells the right to resell it in the leaf without any requirements as to internal revenue or without any governmental limitations whatever, will receive my most vigorous support.

Fair Treatment to Corporations.

I recognize that in our government organizations of capital are necessary in the development of our country and service of our people, that they should be treated fairly, that upon their investments they should receive just, even generous, return. I would not impose upon them a single hampering or oppressive condition; I would not take from them a single dollar to which they are justly entitled. I would only ask of them like treatment for the people; I would only invoke between them and the people that democratic docurine by which I have squared my political life of "equal rights to all, special privileges "equal rights to all, special privileges to none." I would beat back with all my power any attempt to destroy them or to deny them such just return upon the capital invested as I would battle against any attempt upon their part to levy more than such a just charge upon the consuming public.

The Judiciary Committee. The Senator tells us that he is upon the Judiciary Committee of the Senate and that he believes it is a committee of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate and that he believes it is a committee of as high rank as any committee in the Senate. Surely the Senator does not expect the people of Kentucky to share this belief, for the Judiciary Committee does not handle appropriation bills, nor bills affecting the revenue or naval affairs, or military affairs, nor matters relative to interstate commerce, nor matters relative to interstate commerce, nor matters relative to post offices and post roads, nor matters relative to the rules, and certainly the Senator knows that the Finance Committee, the Appropriations Committee, the Committee on Naval Affairs, the Committee, the Committee and Foreign Commerce, the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads, seven committees in all, are of higher rank than the Committee on Judiciary I have taken some pains to examine the committee assignments of Democratic senators who entered the Senate at the same time Senator Paynter to deny it that he can not point out a single Democratic senator who entered official service at the same time he did who has not equally as good or better assignments than he has.

Would Represent All the People.

Would Represent All the People. As the Senator from Kentucky I would represent the whole people. I would always attempt to reflect their will, I would be conscious of the fact that I was always attempt to reflect their will, I would be conscious of the fact that I was casting their vote, not mine. It would be their will, not my own desire, that would actuate me and control my conduct. If the time should ever come that I could not cast their vote according to their known wishes, I would not assume and pretend a false courage by saying that I would not cast their vote, otherwise, than as I desired, "If every man, woman and child in my beloved state should petition me to do otherwise." But I would be brave enough to tender back to the people the office they gave me and let them elect some one who would represent them truly and cast their vote as they desired.

Upon all those questions where you have not expressed your will I would use my voice and vote for your highest and best interests as God gave me the light to see it, and upon those questions where you had expressed your will, I would carry out your instructions to the letter, or resign my scat in the Senate.

My Views of a Protective Tariff.

My Views of a Protective Tariff. Since I have been a member of Congress I have been the tax upon the people who consume those things that are necessary to their existence. Upon every vote when the Payne tariff bill was under consideration I voted to lower its outrageous duties I believe a tariff is a tax and that it is paid by the consumer, and that the duties I believe a tariff is a tax and that it is paid by the consumer, and that the only excuse for its existence is to raise revenue to run the government, and for that alone. It was never thought of or even dreamed off when this Republic was created that the taxing power would be used to enrich some at the expense of all, or to enrich any at the expense of the rest And no tariff tax should be levied except for the sole and single purpose to raise revenue enough to run the government in economy and honesty. But the mighty combinations that everywhere tower above us and oppress the people, the trusts and monopolies upon everything, are the direct result of a tariff for protection, which is but another way of taking money out of the pockets of all the people through the forms of law to make the pockets of other people bulge and their fortunes grow into the millions. The more I see of this indefensible robbery under the forms of law called protective tariff, the more willing I am to concede the exceeding wisdom of Alexander Hamilton, was more than a hunander Hamilton, who more than a hundred years ago declared that you could tax the coat off of a man's back if you did it indirectly and he would not complain. The wrong of the tariff does not stop when it takes from the pockets of all the people to eurich the few, but it lands to extravagance, to recklessness in he expenditure of the people's money

My Attitude on the Income Tax

Question.

I have always believed in an income ax, because it is a just way to distrib-ite the burdens of the government. tax, because it is a just way to distribute the burdens of the government.
Those who are most prospered by a government ought to be willing to pay the most to maintain it. It was a tax that was good enough for the fathers who framed the government, good enough for those who made it great, good enough for Abraham Lincoln with which to maintain the war between the States. In fact, it is a law which came from Heaven, for the Master announced it better than any mortal ever has when he called for a mortal ever has when he called for a tithe of the carnings of all to maintain the church, to succor the widow and

How I Stand on the Direct Election of United States Senators.

I am in favor of the election of sena-tors by the direct vote of the people, for in the language of the Democratic na-tional platform its gateway for all other reforms and without which all other Railroad Rate Regulation.

I believe in the regulation of the rail-roads, for they are the great interstate carriers of commerce and people. They are quasi public servants have the right of eminent domain, and should be treated fairly, but they should also treat the shippers and travelers justly.

Pure Food Legislation. I supported the pure food legislation and believe it was one of the best laws. Congress has ever passed, because it denied the right of the trusts and monopolies to make their fortunes at the pense of the health of the people of United States.

My Efforts in Behalf of the Tobacco

I have battled for the farmers for eight long years in Congress. I have sought to free them from the clutches of the trusts, and in order to do this I advocated taking the tax off of their tobacco in the hand that the consuming public might become competitors with the sole purchasers of the farmer's product, viz.: the tobacco trust. In Congress, upon the stump, everywhere, I have been the champion of their cause without apology

Publication of Campaign Contributions, contributions and expenses before the election so that the ballot holder might know, when he went to the polls, what forces were back of the candidates for whom he was expected to vote.

Corporal Punishment for Violators of the Law.

I stood upon the floor of Congress and advocated writing into the railroad bill pentientiary penalty for those who vio-late the law. It was voted down in the House, but was finally written into the law in the Senate, and it's the one pro-vision that President Taft says gives effi-cacy and strength to the law.

I have stood for the economical expendi-ture of the people's money, recognizing that it is the duty of the public servant to protect their money as he would his own, to expend it in the same manner.

The Platform a Lien Upon Honor, The Platform a Lien Upon Honor.

I stand squarely upon the National Democratic platform adopted by our party in 1908. I consider our promises made to the people in this platform as a lien upon our honor and goe! faith. With me a platform is truly a contract with the people, and he who violates it is guilty of bad faith to a greater degree than one who violates a private contract for one who violates a public contract betrays all the people, while in a private contract his betrayal is not so great. The one would affect the private fortune of a very few, ternment of all. lic promise no remedy is now obtain In the Beginning I Chose the People's Fellow citizens, I have no doubt that in this race every corporate and vested interest will try to encompass my defeat. I have been told by many that hundreds of thousands of dollars will be poured into Kentucky to defeat me. Why it this? It is because I have been upon your side in this fight; when you were as home and asleep I have been fighting your battles and trying to beat back your assailants, trying to make this your home and asleep I have been fighting your battles and trying to beat back your assailants, 'rying to make this your government in re_ity as well as in name. I have been trying to make laws for you that would visit upon all men who stand beneath the ample folds of the Republic's flag its blessings and distribute its burdens upon the shoulders of all men alike. I recognized when I went into public life that there was an easy way and there was a hard way; that by one way you could have the people upon your side, that they were unorganized, it was hard to arouse them—but when informed, they were just, and when thus enlightened they always do right, for their votes, like the voice of God. is always true. Yet upon the other side, you would have the organized few, the coporate interests, the always alert system, no work required to arouse them, no speaking to enlighten them, but like a ferret always at work. But I chose the people's side. I have been there, and if I go down in defeat in the contest I will have the satisfaction of knowing that, with conscience clear and hands clean, I can lay off the official togs spotless as a star and as clean as the snow that rests upon the peaks of the Himalayas. My appeal is to you, my friends. This is your government. Here you were born and your children were born. Here they must live, and they are entitled, you are entitled to just as good a government as any other people in the world; but you have got to make your voice heard, you have got to make your voice heard, you have got to teach a lesson to the public servant, and make him vote on your side, or you will not vote upon his side.

your side, or you will not vote upon his side. Have Fought Democratic Battles For Twenty Years. Fellow citizens, my record as an alert, fighting Democrat is known to all this Commonwealth. For almost twenty years wherever the battle has raged, I have been found fighting for democracy. In very congressional district in Kentucky, a almost every county in Kentucky, almost every county in Kentucky dur-ing all these years I have given my serv-tes to the democracy. number of them and present personally my cause. I deem it my duty to stay at the post where the people have sent me, struggling to lighten their burdens and struggling to lighten their burdens and to remedy their wrongs. And I feel and hope that the Democrats of the state will see to it that my candidacy does not suffer by reason of my loyalty to them, for in the days gone by I have been with them, fought with them and fought tos them.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVE FAILS

In regard to skin diseases medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT. A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription, penetrates to the disease germs and destroys it, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done. A 25-cent trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief.
